Sir,

In continuation of this office letter No. A.R.382/35-36 dated 12th August 1935, re: interpellation of Mr. T. Madiah Gowda at the June Session of the Legislative Council relating to Societies registered under the Societies Registration Regulation, I have the honour to state that the Registrars of Bombay, Bengal and Madras were consulted as to the existing procedure regarding the Societies which have defaulted in sending the list of members of the executive committee as required in Section 4 of the Societies Registration Act. The Registrars of the former two Presidencies have replied that no proceedings are instituted in such cases, as, in the absence of any penal clause, such proceedings can hardly be successful. The Registrar of Madras has replied that the local Government have passed an order for the destruction of the records of such Societies which have not been known or heard of for seven years, after issuing a registered notice and after notifying the fact in the local official Gazette. Copy of the proceedings of the Registrar of Joint Stock Companies of Madras, together with that of its enclosure, is herein enclosed. It is a point for consideration whether a similar procedure may be adopted in this State also. At present, there are 254 Societies, of which 11 only have sent the lists of members for the last year.

2. I must not, however, disguise the fact that the adoption of this procedure will entail a considerable amount of clerical labour in this office. The various papers and documents documents deposited from time to time in respect of the 254 Societies mentioned above, which are lying in bundles, will have to be separately sorted out; a list of Societies which have not been heard of since their formation will have to be prepared and reminders sent to them from time to tim for the submission of their annual returns; the names of defunct Societies have to be published in the Gazette and finally their names have to be struck off the Registers.

3. The work in this office, as pointed out already in my letter No. 181/35-36 dated 15th July 1935, has increased very much - both in volume and complexity - of late years. It is not therefore possible to saddle this extra work on the existing staff.

4. In these circumstances, I request that a temporary clerk on Rs.25/- may be sanctioned for one year in the first instance. A sample reminder form is herewith sent. The Superintendent, Government Printing, may kindly be directed to print and supply 1,000 copies of the said form every year to this office.

I. Section 4 of the Societies Registration Act 1860, (Act XXI of 1860), requires, that--

"Once in every year, on or before the fourteenth day succeeding the day on which, according to the rules of the society, the annual general meeting of the society is held, or, if the rules do not provide for an annual general meeting, in the month of January a list shall be filed with the Registrar of Joint Stock Companies, of the names, addresses and occupations of the Governors, Council, Directors, Committee or other Governing Body then entrusted with the management of the affairs of the Society."

II. The list referred to above should state clearly, (1) the name of the Society at top, (2) the particular year to which the list relates, and (3) the names (with their occupations--other than their designations in the Society as President, etc.,--and addresses) of the members of the Governing Body for the particular year, and should bear the signature with date of an officer of the Society.

III. For each year (calendar year) a fresh (separate) list made up as per item II above should be filed even though there may not be any change in the list from the one filed for the previous year.

IV. If a Society omits to file a list for any year without assigning satisfactory reasons for the non-filing it stands liable to be treated as having become defunct, when its records will be destroyed in due course. The Society will, thereafter, cease to exist, so far as the Societies Registration Act, 1860, is concerned.

Proceedings No. 590-Comp. Dated the 13th June, 1934.

Societies registered under the Societies Registration Act, 1860 (Act XXI of 1860) - call for the filing of the over-due lists of members of the Governing Body-Instructions.

The reminders issued to societies for the filing of the overdue lists of members of the governing body, should be in the form annexed to these proceedings and should be sent to the personal address of the president, Secretary or other responsible officer of the society as given in the last list on record in case the exact up-to-date address of the registered office of the society is not available in the records. The second paragraph of the annexure may be - deleted when issuing routine reminders. No society should however, be treated as defunct, unless a registered notice acknowledgment due, is sent in the complete form as set out in the annexure allowing at least a month's time for the - filing of the over-due lists.
